

Amy Andrews

Class of 1982

2018 Hall of Fame Inductee

State Individual Champion (1981)
Track - 200 Meter and Long Jump

Amy is the most illustrative track and field athlete to have graduated from St. Mary's, and also a noted basketball athlete.

Amy is an automatic individual inductee to the St. Mary's Hall of Fame, having been crowned state champion in 1981 in the long jump and the 200 meter dash. Amy's sprint medley team (also a team inductee to the St. Mary's Hall of Fame) finished first in the state in 1981.

Amy is the existing record-holder in the following events: 100 meter, 200 meter, high jump and long jump. Amy is also part of three record-holding teams: 4x100, 4x400 and the sprint medley. Amy went to the state track meet all four years in high school.

Amy's most successful year was her junior year. She was hampered with a hamstring injury her senior year. Amy's dad, Wayne Andrews, was the basketball scorekeeper for over 50 years at St. Mary's.

Amy and her husband, Dan Hurley, now reside in Denver, Colorado. She still has many ties to St. Mary's.
